ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 8th of December 2005)

The point urged in this writ petition could be urged as a ground of attack, if the order that may be passed by the first respondent in the pending election petition, goes against the petitioner herein. There is no need for this Court, at this stage, to entertain this writ petition and undertake the tenability of the ground urged in this writ petition. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed, however, reserving liberty to the petitioner to urge this ground, in the event of first respondent passing an adverse order against the petitioner in appropriate legal proceedings.
